much has been written about the aesthetics of the television series hannibal and its devoted fans and some have discussed its philosophical ideas and its gothic characteristics but until now there has been no in depth reading of the show as a fairy tale however the show positions itself as a fairy tale in its third season recognizing it as a fairy tale provides an understanding of its appeal and forces us to consider its lessons like a fairy tale hannibal plays with time and reality and teaches its audience about their world and how to survive in it from the show the audience learns both the importance and the danger of family and friends the complicated nature of humanity containing the capability for good and evil and the arbitrariness of society's definitions and taboos as a fairy tale it draws its viewers in and encourages them not only to come back time and again but to retell and even add to the story this book exposes the dark evil ideology that has descended over america the arch of the hegelian dialectic culminates only in negation with millions annihilated in the nightmare apocalypse of post modernist democratic socialism the truth about neo marxism cultural maoism and anarchy exposing woke insanity in an age of disinformation reveals how communist ideology has evolved into its present day woke madness that began with immanuel kant and georg wilhelm friedrich hegel continued through antonio gramsci and the frankfurt school and concluded with post modern thinkers like jean baudrillard want to understand why the neo marxists cultural maoists and anarchists of the woke critical theory radical left live in a fundamentally different view of reality operating with a set of values that redefines truth to be subjective read the truth about neo marxism cultural maoism and anarchy but be prepared to be shocked jerome r corsi has conducted a tour de force examination of philosophical texts modern critical theory treatises and the murderous history of communism under stalin and mao that exposes the neo marxists behind today's anti capitalist woke schizophrenia mass incarceration is one of the most pressing ethical and political issues of our time in this volume philosophers join activists and those incarcerated on death row to grapple with contemporary u s punishment practices and draw out critiques around questions of power identity justice and ethical responsibility this work takes shape against a backdrop of disturbing trends the united states incarcerates more of its own citizens than any other country in the world a disproportionate number of these prisoners are people of color and today a black man has a greater chance of going to prison than to college the united states is the only western democracy to retain the death penalty even after decades of scholarship statistics and even legal decisions have depicted a deeply flawed system structured by racism and class oppression motivated by a conviction that mass incarceration and state execution are among the most important ethical and political problems of our time the contributors to this volume come together from a diverse range of backgrounds to analyze critique and envision alternatives to the injustices of the u s prison system with recourse to deconstruction phenomenology critical race theory feminism queer theory and disability studies they engage with the hyper incarceration of people of color the incomplete abolition of slavery the exploitation of prisoners as workers and as raw material for the prison industrial complex the intensive confinement of prisoners in supermax units and the complexities of capital punishment in an age of abolition the resulting collection contributes to a growing intellectual and political resistance to the apparent inevitability of incarceration and state execution as responses to crime and to social inequalities it addresses both philosophers and activists who seek intellectual resources to contest the injustices of punishment in the united states
